

Quality of Life: Climate

Temperature

The average summer high is typically in the 90s and the night time lows fall between 60-70 degrees Fahrenheit. The winter day highs are between 50-60 degrees with the night time lows often in the mid 30s.

Precipitation

The average yearly precipitation for Houston County is between 45-50 inches. The largest amount of rainfall typically occurs in March.